

Approaching digital assets as a professional trustee

JULY 2025

As demand grows for trusts to hold digital assets, professional trustees must navigate fiduciary, legal, and operational challenges.

This article published in Trust & Trustees analyses how trustees can meet their duties when administering digital assets such as cryptocurrencies. Emphasis is placed on issues of asset custody, anti-money laundering compliance, risk mitigation, and due diligence.

Parallels are drawn with traditional alternative assets, illustrating that digital assets are conceptually familiar if technically distinct.

The article concludes that trustees can adopt a phased, policy-led approach to dealing with digital assets, based on their own level of comfort, leveraging expert support to discharge their obligations responsibly.

Read the full article here.

Collas Crill has a dedicated crypto and digital assets team which advises in relation to a broad range of legal issues involving crypto and digital assets see here.

COLLAS CRILL

For more information please contact:

Kate Anderson

Partner (Advocate) | Jersey

t: +44 (0) 1534 601679 | e: kate.anderson@collascrill.com

Wayne Atkinson

Partner (Advocate) | Guernsey

t: +44 (0) 1481 734225 | e: wayne.atkinson@collascrill.com

Simon Heggs

Group Partner | Guernsey

t: +44 (0) 1481 734825 | e: simon.heggs@collascrill.com

Fiona Wilson

Of Counsel (Advocate) | Jersey

t: +44 (0) 1534 601683 | e: fiona.wilson@collascrill.com