

Cryptocurrencies and the offshore world: A difficult marriage?

JUNE 2021

An article co-authored by Jersey Group Partner Sam Sturrock and Trainee Solicitor Sophia Moustras has been published on Finextra.

Entitled 'Cryptocurrencies and the offshore world - a difficult marriage?', the piece highlights the impact of the fintech evolution on offshore jurisdictions – particularly the rise of cryptocurrencies – and how they have approached these new challenges from a regulatory and legal framework perspective.

Click here to read the full article.